

At a glance ...

ALTEC Metalltechnik

Product advantages

The ALTEC Metalltechnik GmbH is a creative, innovative and dedicated company located in Crispendorf in Thuringia, Germany, which is committed to the manufacturing of solar mounting systems. With more than 20 years of experience as well as highest quality standards, ALTEC Metalltechnik is a guarantor for satisfied customers and a top position on the market.

An elaborate range of efficient products guarantees security and ease of installation. Thanks to the modular design, the mounting solutions can be used for almost every case of application.

The close cooperation with the TÜV Rheinland allows constant improvement and development of the products on the highest quality level.

Made in Germany

1. Assortment variety

- A coordinated assortment of single components from own production and merchandise
- Ballast free elevation through adhesive mounting system without roof penetration
- Custom-made solutions on demand

2. Ease of installation

- Easy and fast handling from planning to mounting
- Short installation time through premounted system parts

3. Quality

- Use of high-quality and corrosion-resistant material
- Constant product quality through certified quality management
- Static calculations and proofs guarantees highest safety

4. Customer satisfaction

- Professional and timely management of projects of all sizes
- Extensive service: advice, calculation, manufacturing and delivery
- 10 years of manufacturer's warranty